Barefoot Member Parrish Doing Well In Competition

goal so quickly. Tony has played fifteen GSGT events and won four of them while placing in the top five in almost every tournament. He leads the points race and has won more money than anyone else competing on the GSGT.

The next step toward Parrish's goal begins October 30 when he competes in the PGA Tour Qualifying School, a brutal

Tony Parrish has a dream to one day (hopefully sooner than later) play on the Nationwide and PGA Tours. When first planning his strategy, he intended to gradually improve and reach that goal by playing professional competitive golf on mini-tours close to home both in North and South Carolina. He began his quest in March 2007 by joining the Grand Strand Golf Tour. Parrish's competitors on the GSGT are wishing he wasn't moving toward achieving his series of elimination tournaments attempted by many aspiring touring professionals. He must finish in the top 50 of the final Q-School stage in order to be able to move to the Nationwide or PGA Tour. We wish Tony the best and would love to see him achieve his goal. He and his wife, Julie, own Tony Parrish's Bogeys to Birdies Golf Shop in North Myrtle Beach and the business is doing quite well. Tony says many Barefoot Members patronize his shop and he very much appreciates their support. Tony is the son of another family of Barefoot Members, Pete and Deborah Parrish.

Bald Head Bliss In October

Bald Head Island markets its golfing experience as "A Sight-seeing Excursion." Sounds like an appropriate representation, however, the "sight-seeing" begins long before one arrives at the golf course. The island, set just off the Southeast Coast of North Carolina across the bay from Southport, requires an approximate 30 minute ferry ride just to get there. Automobiles are not allowed on Bald Head, so one gets around by golf cart, bicycle or on foot. Of course, this is one example of the focus on environmental preservation on the island established from the very beginning by developers. Even golf course architect, George Cobb, made sure he left much of the terrain the way he found it, creating a course of wild beauty. Many of the golf holes are completely undisturbed and are bordered by the still natural and lively habitats of the birds and animals that reside there including herons, egrets, ibises, foxes and alligators. The layout winds its way over dunes, around lagoons, along the ocean and through a maritime forest.

One can imagine that wind and water are major factors during a round at Bald Head. This is especially obvious when finishing up the front nine. The ninth hole, number one handicap hole, lies close to the ocean receiving constant wind and, if that's not enough, the fairway and green are bordered and surrounded by lagoons. Accuracy and judgment of wind direction and speed are extremely important. The Bald Head Golf Course has experienced a recent improvement in conditioning and service. The improvements have been recognized through a recent ranking of 4 1/2 stars in the Golf Digest "Best Places to Play" survey.

Cost for the ferry ride and golf round on October 18 will be $75.00 per person. If spouses or significant others accompany members playing golf, the ferry ride itself costs $15.00. Many love to go to the shops and restaurants located on the island. All participants will need to catch the 9:00 am ferry out of Southport in order to make tee times which begin at 10:04 am. Call the Pro Shop by 5:00 pm, October 15 to reserve your space. A strict 48 hour cancellation policy is in effect. Those who cancel after the 48 hour deadline without a compelling reason will be charged.

Member - Member Tourney Set

Staff Tournament Director, Ben Daigneault, has set December 12, 2007 as the date for the annual Member-Member Tournament. The Love Course will serve as the setting for a 10:00 am shotgun start. Ben and the Tournament Committee have decided on a slightly different format this year - a Two Person Match Play Against Davis Love III. Ben describes this as "a bogey match (playing against bogey on each hole) with each participant playing his or her own ball. The two-person team records the lowest gross score for each hole. Each team is playing a match against bogey plus 80% of the combined team handicap. The winning team will have won the most holes." There will be a Women's Division. Find a partner and call the Pro Shop at 843-390-3200 to sign up. Cost is $55 per person. Prizes will be given and heavy Hors d'oeuvres served following golf. A minimum of thirty teams is required for the event to occur. Pictured at left are winners from last year's Flight A, Jack Lastes (top) and Walt Stolte (bottom).

Trip To Crow Creek Planned For September

The Grand Strand is home to several golf courses built on former homesteads, farms or plantations. Much of the time, the land lends itself to the natural beauty and terrain one expects to find on a challenging and aesthetically pleasing golf layout. Such is the case of Crow Creek, located just across the NC/SC border in Calabash on Highway 17. Architect, Rick Robbins, a former Jack Nicklaus design associate, created the layout on the scenic 500 acre former homestead of the well-known McLamb Family.

Always superbly maintained, Crow Creek offers beautiful scenery, a variety of interesting holes that are playable for golfers of all levels and a record of service which is widely envied. We've arranged for travel to Crow Creek on Thursday, September 20 with tee times beginning at 12:15 pm. The cost of playing Crow Creek for Barefoot Members is a very attractive $39 considering the Strand is heading into the busy fall golfing season. In view of the price and all the other positive attributes of Crow Creek listed above, one can understand why visitors and locals alike keep going back to this somewhat underrated course.

Call 843-390-3200 by 12:00 noon September 18 to reserve your spot. A strict 48-hour cancellation policy is in effect since we must let Crow Creek know our final numbers 48 hours in advance. Members will be charged for cancellation after the 48-hour deadline without a compelling reason.

Dye Club Moves Dinner To Saturday Evening

The Dye Club at Barefoot Resort has been serving dinner on Friday evenings but is now moving its dinner service to Saturday evenings. Dye Management wishes to invite all Resort Members to the Dye for an evening of superb cuisine and casual elegance. The Club offers a varied menu to please everyone's palette. Call 843-390-8446 to make reservations.

Battle Of The Communities

The second "Battle of the Communities" took place at Barefoot Resort & Golf on July 27. The tournament is organized and run by Resort Member and volunteer, Bob Hesse, as a competition between the various communities developed by Centex Homes at Barefoot Resort. The Cedar Creek Community fended off defending champion Leatherleaf/Somerset by the slimmest of margins to take the trophy (actually cash split among all Cedar Creek Members). Approximately 95 people participated in the event with all gathering for beverages and heavy Hors d'oeuvres following golf at the Resort Clubhouse. The awards were handed out at the same time. Winning Cedar Creek team members included Jim Dellinger, Lou Eichenbaum, Bob & Sue Erway, Bill Hancock, Toby Hargreave, Walt Huryk, Jack & Jane Lastes, Doug Pelfrey, Bob Rausch, Carlos Sanz, Billy Schafer, Alan Simeon and Dorothea Whitaker. The Leatherleaf/Somerset team finished second while Longbridge placed third.

Important Member Reminders and News

Guidelines and Policies You Need To Know

Tee Time “No Shows”

Barefoot Resort & Golf, like most other golf courses on the Grand Strand, has a “No-Show” policy for tee times. The policy pertains to both the general public and Resort Members and states that if one makes a tee time with Barefoot, doesn't cancel the tee time and then does not show up for the tee time, one will be charged for however many rounds of golf one scheduled. Recently, Barefoot has experienced a drastic increase in the number of “No-Shows” among Resort Members. Beginning immediately, Members will definitely be charged for not showing up for a tee time. Any disputed charges for “No-Shows” will only be considered if the Member can provide a cancellation number as assigned by the Staff Member who cancelled the tee time.

Travel Days

For Travel Days to other area golf courses, we will now adhere to a very strict 48-hour tee time cancellation policy in order to comply with requests from the hosting golf courses for more stringent compliance with their cancellation policies. Members who make tee times for Travel Days and cancel after the 48-hour deadline or make tee times and don't show up at the Travel Day Course on the day of play without a very compelling reason will have Travel Day privileges revoked. Individual disputes regarding cancellations will be decided by Management. Also, we will continue to abide by the policy that each member who wishes to participate in Travel Days must sign up for themselves and no one else with the exception of husband and wife. Please understand that these policies are firm and you should not expect Pro Shop Staff to make exceptions.

When A Member Sells His/Her Property

When a Member sells his/her property, the Member forfeits the membership. In order to have proof of the sale and to initiate any dues refund, we ask that the member forward a copy of the first page of the HUD settlement received at closing to the Membership Dept. Since the HUD contains mailing information of the buyer, we can also provide information to them regarding membership options. Fax the first page of the HUD statement to 843-390-3213.

Member Responsibility For Providing Informational Changes

It is the desire of the Membership Dept. to have the most up-to-date personal information for all Members. It is important that we are able to communicate and to make sure that all Member Accounts are current and there is no chance for their becoming delinquent. Therefore, it is the Member's responsibility to provide informational changes to the Membership Dept. like address, phone, e-mail and especially credit card changes and expiration updates. Members may use the form below and mail it to the address listed or call 843-390-3203 or write to the e-mail address membership@barefootgolf.com.
